The Department of Music has approximately eighty-five majors, thirteen full-time faculty, and four staff members—including a staff accompanist and a piano technician. The Department of Music is fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

The Department annually sponsors the Skyhawk Marching Band Invitational, the UT Martin Honor Choir and Honor Band, a Pre-College Piano Competition, and a Fall Piano Pedagogy Workshop. It also hosts many area music festivals, competitions, auditions, and performances by guest artists.

Degree Options
Whether you want to be a music educator or professional musician, or just continue making music during your college career, the UT Martin Department of Music has a place for you:

Bachelor of Music Degree
For the student desiring a professional music degree.
- Music Education Option for careers in the pre-college classroom: elementary, general music, choral, band, etc.
- Performance or Pedagogy Options for careers in performance or studio teaching.

Bachelor of Arts in Music
For the student desiring a broad liberal arts education with an emphasis in music.

Music Minor
For the university student who wishes to continue a formal study of music while pursuing a different major.

Facilities
The Department of Music is housed in the Fine Arts Building which includes the 450-seat Harriet Fulton Theatre, where numerous performances are presented each semester. The Department boasts a state-of-the-art music technology lab with 15 computer and MIDI keyboard workstations, an electronic piano lab, and recently-remodeled practice rooms equipped with upright pianos and Smart Music™ software. A Baldwin SD-10 and several seven-foot Steinway pianos are available for performances. The Department has an Allen electronic organ and a fully-equipped percussion studio.

www.utm.edu/music
731-881-7402

We have a place for you!
Performance Opportunities

Choral/Vocal
University Singers
New Pacer Singers
Lyric Opera Theatre
Gospel Choir

Keyboard
Piano Ensemble
Accompanying

Winds and Percussion
Skyhawk Marching Band
Wind Ensemble
Concert Band
Jazz Band
Pep Band
Chamber Ensembles

Scholarships

The Department of Music offers many scholarships ranging from band awards, choral awards, and accompanying awards, through full tuition and fee waivers for Chancellor’s Music Scholarship recipients. For more information, visit the Department’s website (www.utm.edu/music) or call 731-881-7402.